GOV. TAYLOR BACKS DOWN

Report That He Has Called Off the London Legislative Meeting.

BULLET IN THE LUNG

It Caused Goebel's Death by Suspension of Digestion and Paralyzed Kidneys.

EVIDENCE FOUND FROM WHERE SHOT WAS FIRED.

Kentucky's Acting Governor Further Avoids Complications by Releasing Walker, for Whom a Writ of Habeas Corpus Was Applied—Good Reason Why Republicans Do Not Want a Quorum at London—Democratic Members of the Legislature Seek Safety in Cincinnati.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 5.—[Special Telegram]—There is today a very strong prospect of peace in the Kentucky situation, at least temporarily. Representatives of both sides went into conference at noon. Nothing could be learned of the particular phase of the question to be discussed. But on good authority it was learned that Gov. Taylor is willing to practically retire if the democrats would agree to rescind the Goebel law. Taylor would then issue a proclamation to the people handing back to them the office to which he was elected and then have the whole matter fought over again at the polls next November.

Frankfort, Feb. 5.—[Special Telegram]—An apparently well founded report was current here this morning that Gov. Taylor had called off the London meeting of the legislature.

An autopsy was held this morning on the remains of Goebel. The physicians found that the bullet had pierced the lower portion of the right lung and caused immediate suspension of digestion and paralyzed the kidneys.

It has just been learned that a rifle and three suits of convicts' clothing were found last Tuesday in the room from which the assassin's bullet was fired. The rifle will be used as evidence when the mountaineers and militia leave Frankfort.

Beat Them at Their Own Game. London, Ky., Feb. 5.—[Special Telegram]—At the legislative caucus to be held here this afternoon the proposition will be made that no strenuous effort to bring the democratic members of the legislature to London be inaugurated for the reason that if no quorum is present the report of the contest board cannot be presented, thus beating the democrats at their own game.

Gathering in Cincinnati

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 5.—Thirty-two of the democratic members of the Kentucky legislature arrived in this city last night and are quartered at the various hotels. More are expected on the late trains this afternoon. There were rumors that an attempt would be made to hold a session in Covington today, but it is not thought this is contemplated. The legislators say their idea is to escape arrest by Acting Governor Taylor's men and avoid being taken to London. They are under orders of the democratic steering committee.

PEACE PROSPECTS MUCH BETTER

Gov. Taylor Seems to Fear the Civil Courts in Kentucky.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 5.—The prospects for a peaceful settlement of the struggle for the governorship are better this morning than at any time since Goebel was assassinated. The democratic forces under Gov. Beckham are doing all they can to calm the more violent of their adherents and give continued assurances that they will not countenance the use of force for any purpose.

Gov. Taylor, on his part, in voluntarily releasing Alonzo Walker, for whom a writ of habeas corpus was applied, has removed the most imminent immediate danger, which lay in the threat of Judge Moore of the county court to enforce his orders by the use of an armed posse.

The clash between Gov. Taylor's militia and such armed forces as Judge Moore or the democratic leaders for him could have secured was threatened today.

Although General Castleman has accepted the office of temporary adjutant general, it is certain from what is known of the correspondence between him and Governor Beckham that he has no intention of raising a force immediately either to dispossess Adjutant General Collier and Governor Taylor or for the use of the courts.

Indeed, not only may there be no open conflict for the present but it is very probable that both parties will allow the condition to remain much as it is now until after Governor Goebel's funeral Thursday. Nevertheless, in view of even the possibility of trouble, the school board has decided to close the schools and keep the children off the streets until after the funeral.

Today very few members of the legislature were to be seen in Frankfort. The Republicans left to spend Sunday at their homes on their way to London direct, while the Democrats were generally advised by their leaders to scatter to their homes so that any attempt to take them by force to London was made it would be more difficult to get them together.

CONDITION OF BANKS IN BADGER STATE

IMMENSE INCREASE IN DEPOSITS AND BUSINESS.

Bank Examiner Kidd's Fifth Annual Report—Suggests the Need of a Larger Force, and That the Department Be Given Power to Institute Proceedings for Receivership.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 5.—The fifth annual report of Bank Examiner Edward L. Kidd, just filed with Gov. Scofield, is the most important and exhaustive report of the kind ever made. It not only gives an excellent review of the banking business of the state during the past year, but also contains a number of valuable suggestions.

Mr. Kidd says that the scope of the present statute, which gives him supervision of the state, private and savings banks of the commonwealth, is not as large as it should be. To attain the best results, he says, he should be given the authority, with the approval of the attorney general, to institute proceedings for the appointment of receivers for banks that are found to be insolvent.

Wants the Law Amended

He recommends that the law be amended so as to give him this authority. He portrays the manifold difficulties that confront him in the performance of his duties and urges a more hearty cooperation on the part of bank officials in securing desired reforms.

The report first shows that during the past year private bank at Beloit was changed to a state bank and that during that period two new state banks were established, one being as Port Washington and the other at Stoughton. Fourteen new private banks were opened during the year, while only four banks were closed.

Unparalleled Increase.

There are now 260 state, private and savings banks in the state, an increase of twelve. A comparison of the December 1, 1898 returns, with those of December 2, 1899, shows an increase in items named as follows:

Increase in—
Resources..... $1,002,850.38
Loans and discounts..... 8,241,020.38
Capital, surplus and profits..... 245,003.42
Deposits..... 10,656,901.61
Available cash..... 1,027,591.19
Aggregate Figures for All Banks

In calling for reports last made, an additional item showing the number of deposits in the state institutions was called for, which shows the aggregate number of depositors to be 158,340, or an average of $344.07 for each depositor.

Dewey as a Republican

It is as a republican that Admiral Dewey will seek the presidency, if all the present talk amounts to anything when the time for action shall come.

Mrs. Dewey, though daughter of a famous democratic family, is herself a republican, an expansionist, like her husband.

She has small confidence in the future of the democratic party, now that it has turned its face, malelike, against the traditional democratic policies of hard money and territorial growth.

None but the kindest comment is heard in political and social circles concerning the ambition of Admiral Dewey and his wife. Why should not the gallant admiral be the republican candidate in 1904? Of course, this is a far cry, and many things may occur between now and then, but speaking of their impressions of this moment, men say: "That's just the thing."

ADMIRAL DEWEY TO MAKE THE RACE

He Will Be a Candidate for President Four Years Hence.

WIFE HAS AMBITIONS

He Will Oppose Roosevelt for the Nomination on the Republican Ticket.

It is Reported That Mrs. Dewey is Much More Eager for the Nomination Than is the Gallant Seaman—Kindest Comment in Political Circles Regarding the Ambition of Dewey and His Wife—Have No Confidence in Future of Democratic Party.

Washington, Feb. 5.—After another year of McKinley in the Whitehouse Admiral Dewey will be candidate for president and his chief rival for the Republican nomination will be Governor Roosevelt.

This is looking a long ways ahead but such was the interesting prediction made today one of the shrewdest of public men, one who is well behind the scenes and quite familiar with the budding ambitions that are being nursed more or less secretly in the breasts of men and women.

A Woman's Sly Face.

I say women because in these days we have a pretty good and steady exemplification of the truth of Bulwer's words that "women mix themselves up in all things—wherever mischief is astir, there you may be sure a woman's sly face peeps from her wimple."

For some time society here has been gossiping of Mrs. Dewey's ambition to make her husband President of the United States. Indeed, it is no longer considered a secret and it is known too, that 1904 is the year in which it is hoped the stars will be propitious.

Several months ago the question whether or not the effort should be made this year was taken under consideration and ultimately a decision in the negative was reached. It was perceived that president McKinley would surely be renominated and that any attempt to turn the tide against him could end in nothing but failure.

Dewey as a Republican

In all the discussions which have been had both in congress and out of it for a number of years over the proposed canal the question of England's rights under the Clayton-Bulwer treaty has formed a prominent feature, and on more than one occasion has given rise to the query whether or not the United States government had the moral right to provide for the construction of the canal without a modification of the treaty.

Asks Nothing in Return

The result therefore is to eliminate that feature of the treaty bearing on the subject of dual control, and to leave the United States free to construct and thereafter control the greater-oceanic waterway.

In all the discussions which have been had both in congress and out of it for a number of years over the proposed canal the question of England's rights under the Clayton-Bulwer treaty has formed a prominent feature, and on more than one occasion has given rise to the query whether or not the United States government had the moral right to provide for the construction of the canal without a modification of the treaty.

From the same authoritative quarter

it is ascertained that England has made no demands for a quid pro quo for her abandonment of whatever rights she may have had under the treaty, and which she now promises to relinquish.

Just what shape the agreement between the governments interested is to take is not stated, though it is assumed that some formal instrument will be drafted and sent to the senate for its confirmation.

CARNEGIE TO AID DEMOCRATS.

He Is No Longer in Sympathy with the Administration.

Washington, Feb. 5.—In the embarrassment of the Philadelphia republicans in trying to raise a fund of $100,000 for the republican national convention it is confessed that the purse of Andrew Carnegie is sadly missed. Mr. Carnegie was always a liberal contributor to republican campaign funds. Mr. Carnegie is no longer in sympathy with President McKinley. They parted company in the discussion of the Philippines, and Mr. Carnegie is now said to be willing to use his wealth to defeat the president for re-election. A friend of Mr. Carnegie said today:

"Mr. Carnegie is so much in earnest that he offered the president $20,000,000—the price we paid to Spain for the Philippines—on condition that the Islands should be given their independence. Mr. Carnegie denied this report when it was published, but he recently told me it was true."

"When Mr. Carnegie admitted this to me I asked if he meant it. He replied that he meant it more seriously than any offer to endow a library."

"But could you give $20,000,000?" I asked.

"Well, I have not that much money in my pocket," he replied, "but I think my check would be honored for the amount."

"How much would you have left?" I asked.

"He replied that he would still have enough to keep him busy giving it away as long as he lived. He had

FUNERAL OF LAWTON

More Imposing and Impressive Than Any Since the Burial of Gen. John A. Logan.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 5.—The preparations for the funeral of Gen. Lawton are being made by Adjt. Gen. Corbin and Col. Bingham, commissioner of public buildings and grounds, under the personal supervision of Secretary Root, and it will be more imposing and impressive than any obsequies that have occurred here since the death of Gen. Logan.

Gen. Lawton and his wife were members of the New York Avenue Presbyterian church, but it is decided to hold the ceremonies in the Church of the Covenant because it is more convenient and commodious.

The Rev. Dr. T. S. Hamlin, the pastor, will read the regular service for the dead and President Woolsey Stryker of Hamilton college, who was formerly pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian church of Chicago, will deliver the sermon about forty minutes in length.

JURORS DECLARE

HINMAN NOT GUILTY

Inter-Ocean Editor Did Not Libel the Editor of the Times-Herald.

Chicago, Feb. 5.—[Special Telegram]—The jury in the case of Editor Hinman of the Inter-Ocean accused of criminally libeling Editor Kohlsaat of the Times-Herald, finds the defendant not guilty.

The alleged libel consists of articles written by local labor leaders and published in the Inter-Ocean in which it is hinted that Kohlsaat embezzled certain securities.

SOCIETY WOMEN ARE SHOCKED.

Discover a Negro Dancing at White People's Mask Ball.

San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 5.—Foresters' hall Thursday night was the scene of a masked ball of the Tiburon society, for which invitations were issued to a select few. John Morby was not among the invited. He bore the patricianess of the affair no grudge for their oversight, and when he saw a negro tramp hanging around and observed how graceful he was, he forthwith asked the colored gentleman if he would not give the ladies a treat and go to the ball. The tramp was not proud, and he accepted.

With the aid of some excelsior stowed away under his vest and an ebony mask, he made his appearance at the scene of the festivities. He "personated" a "coon." He sang, he danced and he cake-walked, and his "colored gentleman" airs were as charmingly natural that all the ladies followed him around the hall and declared that he was the best "character" present. The committee agreed with the ladies and awarded the "tramp" the first prize.

Masks were ordered removed at midnight, and at the first glimpse of his shiny ebony face the floor was strewn with gasping maidens and hysterical matrons. He escaped uninjured.

ST. LOUIS HAS A BIG FIRE.

Three Blocks in Retail District Swept Away—Loss $1,000,000.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 5.—One fireman was killed and twelve were seriously injured in a fire which destroyed at least $1,500,000 worth of property in the business district of St. Louis Sunday night. The fire started at Penny & Gentile's big department store at Broadway and Franklin street. It burned fiercely for seven hours, consuming twenty buildings in three blocks. A strong wind from the northwest, which increased almost to a gale, made the fire a difficult one to fight, and for a time that entire section of the city was threatened.

Big Fire in Connecticut.

Norwich, Conn., Feb. 5.—Hopkins & Allen Manufacturing Arms company's pistols and entire stock of pistols, revolvers, rifles and other firearms, with valuable machinery, were destroyed by fire Sunday, as were also two dwelling houses, two livery stables and a building used as a junk shop. The loss, it is estimated, will reach nearly $500,000.

Four Frenchmen Hurt.

Chicago, Feb. 5.—Four firemen were injured while fighting a fire in the basket factory of John S. Benedict at 234-240 North Green street, Sunday morning, and it is thought that one of the injured may die. The factory was damaged to the extent of $15,000 before the blaze was extinguished.

Nothing Known in London.

TO KEEP PACE WITH MARCH OF PROGRESS

BUSINESS CUSTOMS AND CORRECT OFFICE METHODS.

New System Being Offered to the Business Men of Janesville by W. A. Myers, of Milwaukee—Special Courses Being Organized in This City by an Expert.

A successful business man is the one who is ever ready to adopt anything that science and invention can do for him, because he realizes that to keep pace with the march of improvement guarantees to him many advantages over his competitors who fail to recognize the necessity of using the most perfect machinery and methods.

To be permanently successful requires not only sufficient capital, but it is positively necessary to have a proper knowledge of business customs, correct office methods and a thoroughly practical system of bookkeeping.

There are very few people either in this country or in Europe who are capable of planning a system of bookkeeping that will exactly conform to the requirements of business. As an evidence of this fact business men feel the need of results they do not get and their bookkeepers are doing too much work for the results obtained.

As a recognized authority on this subject, Mr. W. A. Myers of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, president of the W. A. Myers Company, who have a national reputation as authors and inventors of labor-saving bookkeeping methods and forms, is in the city for the purpose of giving our business men and bookkeepers a special course of instruction consisting of five lessons, in which the fundamental principles, finer points and proofs of bookkeeping will be thoroughly explained and practically illustrated with diagrams, showing the most approved forms and methods of recording business transactions and of quickly obtaining an accurate and properly classified statement of the condition of any business.

This knowledge has been successfully taught by its authors (the W. A. Myers company) for more than twenty-one years, as a secret system, to about ten thousand firms and corporations in nearly two hundred cities and towns in the United States, at prices ranging from $25.00 to $750.00 for each customer.

These improved methods have so far only been taught to business men and bookkeepers by means of individual instruction, and demonstrated by practical application on each particular set of books. In order to disseminate this knowledge more quickly, and at a price within the means of any business man or bookkeeper, its authors have decided to organize classes for general instruction.

The W. A. Myers company therefore proposes to teach this special course for ten dollars to each individual in classes of twenty-five or more.

Terms for private instruction: To any one person $25.00. To firms and corporations $50.00 and upwards.

Mr. Myers has taught his system to the Janesville Machine company and Isabel Manufacturing company, who are using it with the most satisfactory results. Mr. Myers is placing his system now in The Gazette counting room, and the beneficial results are already apparent.

Mr. Donahue of the Isabel Manufacturing company, was so favorably impressed with the Myers system, that he discarded an entire new set of books for the specially prepared diagrams of the Myers company.

Classes are now being formed by Mr. Myers, and as soon as they are complete a suitable hall will be rented for the course of instruction. Letters can be addressed to W. A. Myers in care of The Gazette or word can be left here so that Mr. Myers may call on interested parties.

PROF. D. D. MAYNE ON "DARK DANCES."

Superintendent of the Janesville Public School Is Not In Favor With

The Plan.

Prof. D. D. Mayne of the Janesville public schools is not in favor of "dark dances" as inaugurated in this city by the Rush Lyceum society which for the greater part is composed of high school members. Prof. Mayne says that the giving of dances under the auspices of the Rush Lyceum society has in no way any connection with the high school. Nor are these dancing parties ever planned at the school.

Prof. Mayne further said: "By turning out the gas and having these so called "dark dances" it seems to me that the young man have made a mistake. If they intend to have young ladies attend their parties I don't see how they can continue these dances. At the recent Rush Lyceum party there may have been teachers there but if so they attended in their personal capacity and not in the capacity of teachers."

Richmond, Wis., Feb. 3—Cards are out announcing a masquerade ball to be held at Holbrook's hall, Wednesday, February 7. Olsen Bros. auction was well attended considering the severe cold weather everything went very high, especially the cattle, which went as high as $50.00, corn although quoted only $7.50 in the local market, brought $9.25 per ton. There remains but little doubt, as to whether clover will withstand the cold dry freeze. Andrew Johnson entertained a slight fracture of the hip by falling a few days ago. Dr. Miller of Whitewater was called and made the old gentleman as comfortable as possible, who is doing well. An assault and battery case will be tried before Justice Suessmich at Delavan Saturday. Mr. Wilson having been rejected by force from Robert Kliman's house, has sued the latter for damages sustained. Oliver and Johnnie Olson were given a very pleasant surprise last Wednesday night. Quite a number of neighbors and friends helped to celebrate the event and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by those present. Rough roads are a very annoying thing these days as it is not all a "patch of roses" to ride three hours on a short trip. Andrew Peterson has purchased twenty acres of wood land of Robert Moore of Fairfield. Consideration $500. Andy Campbell was initiated as a Modern Woodman last Saturday night. Mrs. P. Although corn has advanced considerably in the last six weeks, oats stay at the same low price, something that does not occur very often.

Coming to February

Outing for February is a magician's wand that transports its reader out of their environment through the gates of enchantment to far off lands and pleasure pastimes. The south naturally claims a preponderance for space, for there the opportunities of outdoor life are in no way restricted by climatic conditions. There is fishing for the mighty silver king, the tarpon, in Arkansas, Pass, off the Texas coast. Yachting in the dreamy waters below New Orleans, from the pou of the secretary of the Southern Yacht Club. "A Northern Girl's Huntin' of a Gaitah," from the pen and pencil of the gifted daughter of Senator Quay. There is Wild Cat Hunting in West Virginia, and the Skipper of the "Dragon" tells how he piloted her through inland waters to the south (from New York to Beaufort) and John D. Dunn, the famous golf expert, waxes enthusiastic over Winter Golf in Southern Sunshine, from Richmond through the Carolinas and Georgia to the extreme south of Florida. Even the effect is truly southern; "Two Kentucky Thoroughbreds" and "Carthwaite's Conversion."

Foreign lands yield "A Lion Hunt in Somaliland" and "The Banks of the Zuyder Zee," each beautifully illustrated. Indeed illustration may be said to especially mark Outing for February. The Monthly review of Amateur Sport and Pastimes is full, authoritative and valuable.

An Editor's Life Saved By Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

During the early part of October, 1896, I contracted a bad cold which settled on my lungs and was neglected until I feared that consumption had appeared in an incipient state. I was constantly coughing and trying to expel something which I could not. I became alarmed and after giving the local doctor a trial bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the result was immediate improvement, and after I had used three bottles my lungs were restored to their healthy state. GOD HAS DELIVERED THEM TO AMERICA

MISSIONARY ARGUMENT IN FA VOR OF EXPANSION.

Christians Urged to Seize the Opportunity to Evangelize the Philippines, Cuba and Porto Rico—Sermon by Rev. Mr. Lounsbury at the Baptist Church.

The Rev. E. W. Lounsbury of Chicago occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church yesterday morning, in the absence of Rev. Arthur C. Kempton. His subject was "The Genuine Missionary Spirit." He said in part:

"The missionary spirit is a born spirit. A natural birth and a spiritual birth. Wherever there is the new birth there will be something of a missionary spirit. It led him to many trials and sacrifices. It led him to even his life for the Master.

"Another characteristic of the missionary spirit is one of immediate obedience. We put off our giving to Christ until we loose the blessing. Brethren don't put off the giving of your money until you are dead. Give it now while you have a chance. Give immediately.

"Another characteristic of this spirit is prayerfulness. Pray for foreign missions. It may be a long time before the prayer may be answered but it will surely come. The history of the Taiping shows this to be true. Dr. Clough baptized over 2,200 in one day and could have baptized more but he made a thousand wait and give evidence of their faith. It is marvelous how God has worked in India and Burma. Look at the opening of Africa. God blessed David Livingston in his great work. The great Baptist denomination ought to do much more for that country than they are doing.

"Look at the opening of Japan. It was miraculous. See what God has done for Japan. It is just wonderful. We ought to be alive to our opportunity. This is the richest country on earth. Why not give some of this wealth to Christ.

"God has delivered the Philippines and Cuba and Porto Rico to us and we ought to seize it and give our money to evangelize those islands. Brethren give your money and pray for the great work and God will truly verify his promise to you by blessing you in your own church work at home."

The annual offering for foreign missions was then taken up. It amounted to a goodly sum. Dr. Lounsbury preached in the evening. Pastor Kempson will be in his pulpit next Sunday.

There is no better medicine for the bairies than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures make it a favorite with mothers and small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds, preventing pneumonia or other serious consequences. It also cures croup and has been used in tens of thousands of cases without a single failure so far as we have been able to learn. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. In cases of whooping cough it liquifies the tough mucus, making it easier to expectorate, and lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms of coughing, thus depriving that disease of all dangerous consequences. NEW ROCK COUNTY MAP

W. W. HIXSON & CO. WILL ISSUE A VERY COMPLETE WORK IN A SHORT TIME.

A new map of Rock county is soon to be placed upon the market. The work is now being done by W. W. Hixson & Co., a firm that has been in the map-making business for over fourteen years.

The map will be 42x47 inches, mounted on cloth and covered by townships. The county will be represented on the scale of 1½ inches to the mile and show the location of streams, lakes, cities, villages, schoolhouses, churches, town-houses and residences, public roads; also locating the farms, giving the number of acres and the name of the present owners, wherever it is possible to do so.

The drawings will be verified by personal canvass of the towns, after the drafts are made and the map will be as accurate as it is possible to make one.

Such a map has been long needed. It should hang in every school house and business place in the county, and will also be of great value to farmers and citizens generally.

Messrs. Hixson & Co. have published maps of Waukesha, Racine, Kenosha, Outagamie, and other Wisconsin counties, and have worked extensively in other states. Their work has been first class.

The price of the map will be $6, which is a very reasonable charge, considering the character and magnitude of the work necessary to produce it.

It will be sold by subscription, and canvassers will soon start out. The work will be ready for delivery in a short time. People who wish may send orders to W. W. Hixson & Co. in care of The Gazette office, or give them to Mr. Hixson's agents when they call. Payment will be made on delivery.

ROOSEVELT FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

Henry G. Payne has returned from Philadelphia where he has been assisting in the arrangements for the Republican national convention. In an interview with the Milwaukee correspondent of the Chicago Inter-Ocean, Mr. Payne said:

"With reference to the vice presidency" said Mr. Payne, "there is now a strong movement under way to favor Governor Roosevelt for the place. I think if the people of this country made it apparent that they desired him for the place he would not refuse it. There is a unanimity of feeling in New York in favor of Governor Roosevelt and it would not be at all surprising if he were the nominee. I think the West would be for Governor Roosevelt and would not present a candidate."

"As to the future of the Philippines, I think they are all waiting down at Washington for the speech of Senator Spooner on the resolution which he has offered. It is believed down there that this speech will go far toward defining important future action."

Governor Roosevelt has all the elements of popularity and would make a strong candidate. He will hardly seek the place, although, as Mr. Payne says, he could not well refuse the nomination if it were offered him.

The death of William Goebel, claimant of the governorship of Kentucky, is one of the most tragic occurrences in the Kentucky history of the country. The assassin who slew him should be hunted down. No labor and no expense should be spared. Kentucky needs considerable housecleaning and should start a movement in favor of law and order by hunting down every man in any way responsible for Goebel's death.

The Milwaukee Journal takes no cognizance of the fact that the smokeless campaign cigar has not yet been discovered, when it says:

"There seems to be a leaning toward expression of impurities from politics in a violent manner in Wisconsin and Kentucky. Between the anti-pass law and the smokeless powder there must soon come the time when the office will be compelled to seek the man."

The Milwaukee carnival and the Janesville Midwinter fair serve identical purposes. Janesville would not think of such a thing as abandoning the annual fair and it therefore appears strange to Janesville people that Milwaukee should discuss the feasibility of letting the carnival go by default.

Some of the state papers have apparently adopted a new motto—"when in doubt, write something about the Hon. Isaac Stephenson and his political plans"—but there is nothing to indicate that they know what they are talking about.

The appointment of Charles Lewiston as United States Marshal for the western district of Wisconsin, not only places the office in charge of a good man, but extends a merited recognition to the Scandinavians of the state.

The Chicago and Northwestern depot will not be moved. The decision that the general charter law is valid dispenses of this case too, as the street was vacated under the general charter law provisions.

Up to the hour of going to press no new injunctions had been granted at Milwaukee, and the old ones were or were not in force as the case might be.

George N. Wiswell of Milwaukee, has been appointed sergeant-at-arms of the National republican convention. The choice is an excellent one, and the honor is well deserved.

Two Milwaukee German newspapers are now suing each other for libel. In addition to being the Cream City, the Carnaval city, the Junction city, and the Convention city, it now looks as if Milwaukee would acquire the title of the Libel Suit City.

The Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin has discovered the reason for the many mysterious fires in the county courthouse, and explains as follows:

There has been so much friction in the court house of late, that last night's jury room blaze is hardly a cause for surprise.

IN HONOR OF MRS ZIEGLER

Three Other Functions That Will Interest the Local Public

Mrs. H. G. Carter entertained a few ladies this afternoon at her Pleasant street home, in honor of Mrs. T. J. Ziegler of Chicago.

Members of the Twentieth Century class met in session this afternoon at the Christ church parish house. Mrs. J. B. Dearborn was the leader.

Mrs. A. P. Burnham will entertain a number of ladies Thursday afternoon at her St. Lawrence Place home.

Miss Jennie Baker has issued invitations for company to be given Wednesday afternoon at the North High street home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Baker.

COUNCIL MEETING TONIGHT

Property Owners On West Milwaukee Street Must Now Settle.

Members of the common council will meet this evening in regular monthly session providing a quorum is present. The bonds in regard to the Milwaukee street paving question will come up. There is nothing now to do but to settle on the part of those who have filed a protest. The recent decision of the state supreme court in the Mrs. Adams case of Beloit, put an end to this question. The granting of a saloon license to Mr. Shorb will be favorably passed on.

Isabel Skirts.

Have you seen the skirts made of satin and silkette with ruffles and cord, black and colors that we are offering at $1.25? They were made by the Isabel Manufacturing Co., and would be good value at $1.75. They do credit to this new Janesville factory.

Paxton, Ill., Feb. 5.—Through a misunderstanding of signals a north-bound freight on the Illinois Central was wrecked here Sunday morning. Head Brakeman Bold being instantly killed and Engineer Simmons and Fireman Madix severely injured.

HOW COLOR AFFECTS INDUSTRY

One Reason Why American Machinery Is Not More Popular.

A gentleman who has traveled much and has a very large interest in American export trade said, in conversation the other day, that the principal drawback to a wider extension of American commerce in certain parts of the world is that manufacturers in the United States do not sufficiently study the wants, the customs and the tastes of their prospective customers. "For example," he said, "a certain American firm sent some electrical goods, which were decorated in green, to Japan. They did not sell any. No Japanese would bring such things into his house; it would mean an invitation to the evil deities. Green is an evil color in Japan. What a Japanese wants is red things. Upon this simple matter of color rests the failure of that manufacturer to succeed in export trade." A German employer of labor, said: "I like American machines so far as their performance of their work is concerned, but they demoralize my men. They come here in sober colors of paint and with no bright parts. The men who attend the machines do not have any brass to keep clean or any surfaces to rub, and they get lazy. The German workmen needs to be kept busy with things of this sort." Here, now, are some practical instances of what the American manufacturer must learn before he can attain the widest success in the new field of foreign trade. Do not send to Germany catalogues in the English language or to Japan things decorated in green, or to the isthmus of Panama anything with blue spots in it. It looks as if we need in this country a commercial kindergarten in which such information as the above may be taught to those of a curious and inquiring mind for their everlasting benefit and profit.

Civilizing the Island of Guam.

Gov. "Dick" Leahy of Guam is civilizing the island on the lightning express method. It will be completely Americanized in about a year. In a letter to his brother, an army officer, the governor announces that he has abolished slavery (which was exactly right), compelled some friars to leave the island, amended the marriage laws with regard to polygamy, prohibited the liquor traffic, and forbidden drunkenness. In his drink order the governor sternly said: "Drunkenness is the chief source of all crime and trouble in this island, and must and shall cease." That he is a "benevolent despot" cannot be gainsaid. For example, this order: "For the protection of government interests and as a safeguard against the machinations, devices and schemes of speculators and adventurers, it is hereby ordered that all persons who claim ownership of land in this island or its dependencies are prohibited from selling or transferring any portion of such property without first obtaining the consent of the governor. Violation of this order may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both."

General Warren has therefore been an active and useful but not a great soldier. He is said to be almost as religious as the erratic but gallant Gordon was. He will be 60 years of age on Feb. 7, but in physical strength and mental vigor is still in his prime.

RESPECTED BY THE BOERS.

General Warren, Leader of the British Advance on Ladysmith.

BY HOWARD SPENCE SINCLAIR

General Sir Charles Warren, the English officer whose performances in capturing the now famous Spion Kop and then abandoning it first raised Eugene's hopes to the shouting point and then dashed them to the groaning mark, is the one British leader for whom the Boers have much respect. No man in Buller's army knows better the territory which is being so stubbornly fought for than General Warren. The Boers realize this, for they know him well.

A reputation for skill in strategy, too, has General Warren. But his reputation never had such test as it has been put to within the last week or so, and it has failed to stand the test. The Dutch always refer to Warren as "The General." He is a man of the Gordon type—stern, reserved and a deep student. He has seen much hard service in South Africa and has always carried out his plans. Not being a courtier, he is not liked by the Wolseley clique, but his ability is undoubtedly great and the war office to give him a command.

It was late in coming, however. General after general was sent to the front, and the friends of Warren had begun to think that he had been shelved for good. Then came the reports of the first British reverses, and the war office decided that it was not favorites, but fighters, who must be sent to the field. So General Warren went out with the Fifth infantry division, and when Buller began his advance to Ladysmith he sent Warren to the center of the van.

Warren is a Welshman by birth, having first seen the light in Bangor in 1890. He is a Royal engineer, and

COUNCIL TO ELECT THE COMMISSIONER

SUPERINTENDENT OF STREETS NOT TO BE VOTED FOR.

Section of the Uniform Charter Adopted Giving the Power of Selection to the Common Council, and as Law Has Been Upheld, the New Deal is in Force.

The fate of all the candidates for nomination on the city ticket will no longer hang on the successes or failure of some candidate for street commissioner.
The people of Janesville have cast their last vote for this official.

Hereafter he will be elected by the common council as has been the case with the health officer, the city engineer and the assessors.

The change is the result of the adoption by the common council, of a part of the general charter law, and as the law has been declared valid, the new order of things will go into effect at the spring election.

Much interest will be taken from future skirmishes for delegates as the result of the change. The street commissioner has always been a factor, because of the fact that he was employing many men and had a wide acquaintance.
All other candidates, therefore, had to make their peace with him. It often happened that much the same crowd would attend both the republican caucuses—once in the interest of the man who held the job of street commissioner, and again at the opposition primacy as members of the political party holding the caucus.

Politics, however, had nothing to do with the change. The commissioner had to work under the direction of the council, and the aldermen were held responsible for his work. Therefore they felt that they should have the naming of the official. The general charter law gives the council the power, so the section was adopted some time ago.

DISTORTED SENSE OF HUMOR

"Dead Beat List" Not Only Topic of Interest to Physicians

Janesville, Wis. Feb. 5, 1900.

Editor of the Gazette—Dear Sir:
Evidently, some one with a distorted sense of humor has been making misleading reports for your paper, regarding the Rock County Medical Society and its meetings. Your issue of Friday asserted that a meeting of the Rock County Medical Society would be held in Dr. Q. O. Sutherland's office for the purpose of listing the dead beats of the town.

Saturday's paper contained an alleged report of that meeting which was utterly misleading in that it stated that "the only topic of interest was the dead beat list," that such a list was made and that many were so listed. As a member of that society, then present, I do not wish to rest under such a stigma as is implied, nor do I propose to sit quietly as I am and see my medical brethren so ap-persed.

No such list was made at that meeting, no member brought such a list. If there is such a list I have never seen it and, on inquiry among my medical friends, I have not found one that has such a list. The only allusion to the matter being made in a semi-veiled semihumorous manner, the various members wondering who it is that periodically makes such uncalled for announcements.

The matter got beyond endurance
when this last report was made public.
From what has been said to me by enquiring friends I find that an impression has gained ground that we of the Medical Society propose to play the Shylock and fairly demand our pound of flesh before we attend the sick. After being associated with the men of this society for nearly two years, I fail to see the justice in these implied criticisms. I have found these men to be fair minded, reasonable, liberal and gentlemanly in their dealings.

The members of this society are not banded together to plan raids on the purse of the public. But they are associated without regard to school or iem, to help one another, to learn from one another, to compare methods and keep fresh in mind such scientific truths as they have gained.

The hours of the evening in question were spent in listening to a resume by Dr. Palmer and Fender of their hospital experiences during their European tour, and in comparing the methods of the best medical men of Europe with those in vogue here. I do not believe there is a doctor of our society who would refuse to see the worst dead beat in town if he were in need of medical aid. So much for the physicians.

I do not regard it as at all right to insinuate that such a large proportion of the citizens of the city are dead beats.
Such is not the fact. It can only harm the city to publish such reports. We should at least be patriotic enough to refrain from publishing that which will not redound to our honor as a city. I do not intend a reflection upon the editor here, but it is a word of admonition to the humorist who originated the report.

I, for one, and I know that I voice
the sentiments of several other physicians, do not regard a man as a dead beat and an undesirable patient simply because he happens to be a little slow in payment. We are aware that with wage workers it is impossible to foresee the length of an illness, and that the bill must afterward be made in installments, and I and others would be pained to think that some little child might be neglected and possibly permitted to die because sensitive parents, not knowing the gravity of the illness, hesitated to call competent medical help from dread of being listed as "deadbeat," when times were close financially with them.

I will further add that the percentage of those who are dead beats is very small.
We are making today taffies, nut, and brittle candies, only 10 cents a pound.

GOVERNOR GOEBEL IS DEAD

Passing Away of Democratic Leader Complicates Kentucky Situation.

BECKHAM SUCCEEDS HIM

Governor Taylor Still Remains Under Guard in the State House—Many Threats Being Made—Legislators Meet from Frankfort.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 5.—The death of Gov. Goebel Saturday night, though not unexpected, came as a shock to friends and foes alike, and has greatly added to the difficulties of the situation. Much wild talk is being indulged in by the bitter partisans of both sides, and many threats of reprisals, and counter reprisals are being made. Lt.-Gov. Beckman, who was summoned and sworn in as governor to succeed Mr. Goebel before the latter's death was made public Saturday night, is credited with being firm and cool-headed, and is said to have the adherents of his party to the controversy well in hand. His first official act was the issuing of an proclamation appointing Gen. Castleman to the command of the state militia, and ordering all armed men, including those militiamen loyal to Gov. Taylor's cause to lay down their arms and disperse to their homes. By this act he virtually declares all men found bearing arms, except under the command of Gen. Castleman, outlaws, and as the courts are with him and will be with him in the prosecution of the men so captured by the hundreds of deputies appointed by his provost marshal, he is in a position to score an important advantage.

Taylor Under Guard.

Gov. Taylor still remains shut up in the executive offices in the state house under heavy guard of militia.

A report is in circulation tonight that certain of the more violent members of the Goebel forces are stationed at convenient points around the capitol grounds for the purpose of assassinating Gov. Taylor as soon as he ventures from his place of seclusion in the executive building. Mr. Taylor is expecting this, and in his movements every precaution will be taken. Threats have also been made against Adj.-Gen. Collier and Secretary-Elect Blackburn. Gov. Taylor is believed to be in danger, and it may be several days before he ventures out of the executive building.

Republicans Criticized.

The republican administration is being criticized severely for not having taken prompt steps to apprehend the assassin of Goebel. It is said by democrats especially that a thorough examination of the executive building and state house should have been made as soon as Mr. Goebel was shot down, and that Gov. Taylor's reward should have been announced within an hour after Mr. Goebel had been fired upon. The officials of Franklin county say they might have captured the assassin but for the fact that the executive building was surrounded immediately after the shooting by soldiers, and they were prevented from entering it.

Search for Assassin.

The friends of Mr. Goebel will make every effort to capture his slayer. Money will be raised by them and a tempting reward offered for the arrest and conviction of the man. If the shooting was the result of a conspiracy, as they contend, it is reasonable to suppose the facts will come out. They go on the principle that one man can keep a secret, but several can not. They predict that before the matter is settled there will be several arrests, and the names of several high officials are mentioned in this connection.

Federal Set for Thursday.

Mr. Goebel's funeral will be held Thursday from one of the churches in Frankfort. The remains will be deposited in a vault for several months, and then interred in a lot among Kentucky's distinguished dead at the state cemetery here. It has been decided to take the body to Covington, Mr. Goebel's home, Monday evening on a special train. The body will then lie in state at Odd Fellows' hall Tuesday. It will be brought back here early Wednesday morning and lie in state in the ball room of the Capitol hotel until 10 o'clock at night.

The funeral services will be held at noon Thursday. In accordance with Mr. Goebel's wishes, the services will be simple. Ministers of several denominations will take part.

Castleman's Position in Doubt.

There is some doubt as to whether Gen. Castleman has accepted or declined the office of adjutant-general.

It is known, however, that he or some one else has been enlisting men for the Democratic state guard. Gen. Castleman admitted Sunday night he had secured enough men to form a battalion of infantry, which would report at once to Col. C. C. Bingill, commandant of the Louisville legion, or the First Kentucky regiment, now on duty at Frankfort. When asked where he would get arms and ammunition, Gen. Castleman smilingly remarked, "We already have them stored away."

Pope Leo Sees Surprised.

Rome, Feb. 5.—The pope received Mr. Spalding, bishop of Peoria, on Sunday. His holiness asked the bishop what the feeling in America was regarding the war in South Africa. He seemed surprised that President McKinley had not offered his good offices to the combatants, and said that political reasons only had prevented an offer of mediation by the vatican.

arrived here Sunday afternoon and had conferences with ex-Gov. Bradley and the other attorneys for the republicans in the election contest. All of the legislators left on late trains for London, Ky., to which point Gov. Taylor adjourned the general assembly, to meet Tuesday. Accompanying these were several democratic members, who declared that they did not care to subject themselves to arrest, humiliation and possibly punishment by the republican state government. The republican members of the general assembly will hold a caucus at London tonight, and, after mapping out a plan for action, will nominate ex-Gov. William O. Bradley for the United States senate, to contest the admission of Senator-elect Blackburn to that body.

Two companies of militia will also go to London, and if there should not be a quorum of the legislators present when the two branches of the general assembly are called to order Tuesday, the sergeant-at-arms of each house, escorted by a complement of soldiers, will be dispatched for the absent members, who will be arrested in any part of the state in which they may be found. It is at this point that a clash, which now means a fight, is expected to ensue.

Mr. Beckman, the democratic governor, and all his leaders, are also here, having come from Frankfort Sunday evening, and it is said upon high authority that they propose to try to establish their state government here, where they will have at least police protection.

Call Goebel a Martyr.

Chicago, Feb. 5.—The County Democracy abandoned its regular order of business and program of amusements Sunday afternoon and turned the regular meeting into a memorial service for William Goebel. A resolution eulogizing Mr. Goebel and condoning with his family was passed, and several speakers took occasion to characterize the dead statesman as a martyr to the cause of liberty and good government, and to hold the republican party in general responsible for his assassination.

Legislators Flew to Ohio.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Feb. 5.—Thirty-two democratic members of the Kentucky legislature, including eight senators, arrived here Sunday night, presumably to avoid arrest by the republican sergeants-at-arms of the Kentucky general assembly. It is said only four democratic senators and five representatives were left at Frankfort—a number sufficient to convene the legislature there.

PLAN A REORGANIZATION.

Capitalists Interested in United States Flour Milling Company.

New York, Feb. 5.—A committee consisting of Samuel Thomas, chairman; Edwin Gould, J. Edward Simons, Warner Van Norden, Brayton Ives, William Lanman Bull and Thomas A. McIntyre has undertaken the organization of the United States Flour Milling company. The company, as proposed, will be free from floating debt and will have $1,500,000 working capital and $1,000,000 or more of the new first-mortgage bonds in its treasury. The Hecker-Jones-Jewell Milling and the Northwestern Consolidated Milling companies will also be free from floating indebtedness. Under the plan there will be a total of $8,163,000 of first-mortgage 5 per cent bonds outstanding, of which $2,261,000 are set aside to take up the first-mortgage bonds of the Hecker-Jones-Jewell Milling company and the Northwestern Consolidated Milling company. Of the new 6 per cent preferred stock there will be issued $8,302,000, and of common stock $3,500,000 will be issued.

Mullen Checkmates Hill.

Tacoma, Wash., Feb. 5.—President Mullen of the Northern Pacific has checkmated the Great Northern by buying from John D. Rockefeller and associates ten miles of the Everett & Monte Cristo railroad at Everett. President Hill of the Great Northern had been planning to buy this property, but Mullen acted first. The Northern Pacific thus secures entrance to Everett which the Great Northern has heretofore dominated.

Arrest Editor for Perjury.

Shelbyville, Ind., Feb. 5.—Editor George Ray of the Shelby Democrat, who has been defending County Commissioners Amos and Cherry through his paper on the charge of malfeasance in office and who last week was arrested on two grand jury warrants charging him with presenting and collecting false claims against the county, was arrested Sunday on the charge of perjury. He gave bond in the sum of $2,000.

Death of a Centenarian.

Ottumwa, Iowa, Feb. 5.—Booker Fox, an aged colored minister, died in his home in this city late Saturday evening at the age of 106 years. He is survived by his seventh wife. He was the father of twenty-seven children, six of whom are living, and is said to have had 100 descendants. He has been a preacher for eighty-two years. He was not educated, but possessed a wonderful memory, and was able to quote almost every verse of scripture that he had ever heard.

Woman's World.

Comfortable Woolen Things Which Women Knit For the Benefit of the Sterner Sex—Excellent Patterns For Fancy Stocking Tops.

Knitting of the good old style description has become a thing of fashion. Nearly every woman expects to do more or less of it, and it is now quite the fad to turn out articles of a substantial order and practical value, such as stockings, caps, gloves, neckties, etc. Especially does the masculine element benefit by this new order of things. Women knit socks and various comfortable articles for fathers, brothers and others, and designs for fancy tops to golf and cycling stockings are generally in demand. Here are two entirely original and useful ones. They are worked out in four ply fingering. To reduce the size one entire portion of the design they are left out.

Two skeins of the foundation color and one of the lighter or darker color for the pattern will be sufficient for each pair. Some workers work the tops on to the stockings after the long, tedious part is finished. In the latter case the stitches at the commencement of the leg are picked up and the top worked upward, with the wrong side to the right side of the stocking leg.

The first top looks well worked in gray and black, with four steel needles No. 12 or 13. Cast on in gray (G) 102 stitches and work six or seven rounds of ribbing, first round 3 plain, 3 purl and next round 3 purl, 3 plain. Knit one plain round in black (B). Second round of border, 1 B, 2 G. Repeat third round, 1 B, 1 G. Repeat fourth round as second. Fifth round, B all round. Sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth rounds in gray. In the seventh round take 2 together at the beginning and end of the round. Tenth, eleventh and twelfth rounds, black. There are now 199 stitches on the needles. Each pattern takes 20. First round of pattern, 2 B, 8 G. Repeat. Second round, 7, 2 B, 7 G, 4 B, 7 G. Repeat from * Third round, * 2 B, 6 G, 2 B, 2 G, 2 B, 6 G. Repeat from *. Fourth round, * 2 B, 5 G, 2 B, 4 G, 2 B, 5 G. Repeat from *. Fifth round, * 2 B, 4 G, 2 B, 6 G, 2 B, 4 G. Repeat from *. Sixth round, * 2 B, 3 G, 2 B, 8 G, 2 B, 3 G. Repeat from *. Seventh round, * 2 B, 2 G, 2 B, 10 G, 2 B, 2 G. Repeat from *. Eighth round, * 2 B, 1 G, 2 B, 5 G, 2 B, 5 G, 2 B, 1 G. Repeat from *. Ninth round, 4 B, * 4 G, 2 B, 2 G, 2 B, 4 G, 6 B. Repeat from *, end 2 B. Work three rounds in B, four rounds in G, increasing 2 stitches in the third round of G. There are now again 102 stitches, which are required for the border; the five rounds of which must now be repeated. Finish with six or seven rounds, alternately of 3 plain, 3 purl and 3 purl, 3 plain. Commence the stocking.

The pointed stripe pattern is prettily carried out in four ply fingering in dark blue and heather. Four steel needles No. 12 or 13. Cast on 32 stitches on each of the three needles. In blue (B) knit one round, purl two rounds and knit one round. Repeat these four rounds in heather (H) and again in B. First round of pattern, 1 H, 4 B. Repeat all round. Second round, 3 H, *, 4 B, 4 H. Repeat from *, end 1 H. Third round, 2 H, *, 4 B, 4 H. Repeat from *, end 2 H. Fourth round, 1 H, *, 4 B, 4 H. Repeat from *, end 3 H. Fifth round, 4 B, 4 H. Repeat. Sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth rounds, same as fifth. Eleventh round, 3 B, *, 4 H, 4 B. Repeat from *, end 1 H. Twelfth round, 2 B, *, 4 H, 4 B. Repeat from *, end 2 B. Thirteenth round, 1 B, *, 4 H, 4 B. Repeat from *, end 3 B. Fourteenth round, 4 H, 4 B. Repeat. Work these 14 rounds in backward sequence till you have worked the twenty-eighth round, which will be exactly like the first round. Knit and purl the 12 rounds of the border as at the beginning of the top and commence the stocking.

HANDSOME RESIDENCE,

Built In Best Manner, Complete In Detail, For $2,500.

In building a home there are many things to be considered. The first and most important, of course, is the cost. Before a man starts to build he should familiarize himself with the various houses he sees around him, observing their defects and shortcomings as well as points of excellence. The most important point about a building to the housewife after external appearance is the arrangement of the interior, and this should receive careful consideration. A house may be all that is desired on the outside, but inside may fall far short of what comfort and convenience demand. The architect designs to please his clients and is often forced by his employer to make changes in plans which are almost certain to result disastrously. Therefore a home builder should give due consideration to all proposed changes before he finally adopts or rejects them. The trained architect knows what he is about, and if general directions are given he can produce a plan that will satisfy his client and produce at the same time an artistic as well as a convenient home. The plan here shown is one that has many points to commend it. It is to be built of spruce timber, covered with shingles on the second story and with white pine bevel siding. The dimensions in the clear are 20 feet wide, including bays, and 44 feet deep, including bays. It has a veranda 9 feet wide wedding gowns in general are cut in a long point falling over the back of the hand, which is ungloved.

FRONT ELEVATION.

BRIDAL AND GOING AWAY GOWNS.

The sensible and convenient fad of the season is that the bride, and the groom also, does not wear gloves, thus obviating all awkwardness and delay connected with getting the ring safely upon the bride's finger.

White satin still represents the proverbial wedding gown, but crepe de chine, voile or any soft silk material is equally suitable.

The dress for the bride's mother challenges attention as a particularly elegant confection, exploiting one of the most chic effects of the season in skirts. It is of black velvet, the upper part of the skirt sitting with becoming snugness and the bottom cut in long, narrow points which flow out gracefully over a billowy mass of white silk ruffles edged with black velvet. The bodice carries the same striking mode, and a 'toque' of black velvet with a white osprey completes the costume.

Coats of ivory white cloth bordered with white fox fur, hats to match and muffs of the fur represent charming costumes for six small bridesmaids.

For older maids, where the bride wears satin, very delicate shades of the same material are selected.

While wedding fashions do not change greatly, a few little variations mark each new season. This winter, as already noted, the absence of gloves for the bridal party is perhaps the most startling innovation. Then the bride wears a greater number of brilliant jewels, and only the sentimental indulge in orange flowers, though a tiny bit is sometimes worn in the corsage.

To carry prayer book or bouquet remains one of the open questions—which each bride decides according to her fancy. The shower bouquet, tied with narrow ribbons, however, is giving place to a much rounder form, from which hang wide ribbon bows and ends.

Once more the picturesque fashion of six or eight bridesmaids, in addition to the maid of honor, bids fair to prevail, and little difference is observed between the maid of honor and the other.

A Young Hero.

Willie Cochran, 4 years old, of 263 Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn, in saving his little 3-year-old sister Cora from being run over by a trolley car, was himself struck and received injuries which cost him his life. The small hero, with his mother and sister, was at a grocery store in Myrtle avenue, near Raymond street, when the little girl, seeing an aunt on the other side of the avenue, started to run over to her, heedless of an oncoming trolley car. The boy saw the danger, ran after his sister, and succeeded in pushing her off the track just in time, but was too late to save himself. The fender struck him, and he was hurled violently into the gutter. An ambulance was summoned from the Brooklyn City hospital, and on examination it was found that the boy was suffering from a severe laceration of the left leg, and from internal injuries, from which he died shortly after reaching the hospital.

Costs about 14 cents as coffee, 15c, and 25c per package. Ask your grocer for Grain-O.

Building Sites.

Where building sites are not expensive, the houses should be built separate from neighboring ones, although such a plan renders the rooms liable to be affected by changes of the outside temperature. The small, isolated homes of our country regions and villages are much more healthful than the crowded tenements or apartments of the cities, because the house standing by itself receives more sunlight and fresh air, and being free from contact with others it is less likely to have its inmates receive infection and less likely to have the germs of disease enter it from infected bedclothing, carpets and other articles heedlessly shaken in the air by neighbors.

BULLER'S ADVANCE RUMORED

British Forces Said to Have Again Crossed the Tugela.

Interest is entirely centered in Gen. Buller's movements, of which the correspondents send practically no news of importance, except the Central News' dispatch from Durban, stating that the British are again across the Tugela river and marching to the relief of Ladysmith.

This dispatch, though its assertions are made definitely and without reserve, receives little credit. Other dispatches not only do not corroborate it, but indicate that up to Sunday night Gen. Buller had not moved from Spearman's camp.

Hope for Speedy Advance.

Other correspondents, in dispatches dated Saturday, speak of the men as eagerly waiting for the advance. Therefore, unless messages have been held by the censor and forwarded, dated the day of the coding, the Central News correspondent would seem to be mistaken.

A telegram from Ladysmith Sunday said: "We were greatly cheered by hearing Buller's guns heard at it again yesterday. We do not know the result, but the enemy is massing near Ladysmith again. They are also moving another gun toward Spion Kop. We are quite ready if they contemplate another attack! All's well!"

Only Mention of Spring.

It may be worthy of notice that no other message refers to Gen. Buller's guns firing on Saturday.

The Chronicle's correspondent at Ladysmith telegraphed Sunday: "A report has reached us that one brigade has crossed the Tugela river."

The foregoing is all the news throwing any light on the position in Natal. The absence of any details of the movements or arrangements of Gen. Buller's division, in conjunction with the silence of the war office, is taken to mean that important operations are at least imminent, but the Central News dispatch is considered most unlikely.

Calls at British Sheds.

Johannesburg, Feb. 5.—Commandant Albrecht of the Boer army has written to a friend at Magdeburg criticizing Block's book, with which he disagrees regarding the deadly effect of modern artillery. He says:

"Day before yesterday we battered Buller and scarcely fired a single shell. What the British use are not worthy the name of cannons. Out of 100 shells fired by the British not ten exploded. These create more uproar than damage."

Commandant Albrecht admits that the Boer artillery has failed, by a long way, to achieve the results generally expected. He says they fired 100 shells at the battle of Colenso, and it is doubtful if 100 men were injured by them. The riflemen in ten minutes accounted for more men than did the artillery in ten hours.

To Release Pretorius.

Cape Town, Feb. 5.—Gen. Lord Roberts, a few days ago, informed the military authorities at Pretoria that Commandant Pretorius of the Transvaal army had been wounded and was a prisoner in the hands of the British, and that one of his legs had been amputated. He added that he did not wish to detain so brave an officer, and asked where he should send him. A reply has been received asking Lord Roberts to send him to Modder river, where he can be turned over to Commandant Cronje.

Natal Pretor Captured.

Boer Head Quarter, Ladysmith, Feb. 2.—Commandant Terreiria of the Vryheid district reports that he has captured eleven white and thirty-four colored police, mounted and armed, at Nootn, near the Vryheid border. He took all their horses, 341 rifles and considerable ammunition.

To Try to End the War.

Paris, Feb. 5.—There is a persistent rumor in well-informed political circles that the opening of the exposition will be made the occasion of the assembling of a great international arbitration congress, and that the nations represented will bring all possible influence to bear to put a stop to the Transvaal war.

Raise News Promulgated.

Orange River, Feb. 3.—It has been reported here that the Landrost of New Soo, who publicly read on Jan. 21 a telegram, as follows: "Roberts is a prisoner. Both have been killed. Nine thousand Brit. are lost forty-eight guns." The British lost 7,000 are prisoned as last Saturday.

New York, Feb. 5.—Charles Eversor Macrum, former United States consul-general at Portofaria, arrived on the day with his wife and daughter. He refused to be interviewed.

Kimberley Siege Report. Kimberley, Feb. 3.—The enemy's daily shelling is extremely desultory. There have been no further casualties. The shops are open and tram cars are running.

Von Marten's Fore sight.

Prof. Frederick Von Marten, who holds the chair of international law in the St. Petersburg university, and is a frequent representative of the czar in legal councils of moment, is not a Russian citizen, nor even a Russian subject, but a philosophic German. He is a notable linguist and author, and at the Venezuela arbitration conference in Paris, where he read the decision of the commission, he had a pleasant fashion of addressing each delegate in his own language. One of the English jurists wondered how the professor was able to keep up his knowledge of so many modern tongues. The professor replied: "It is self-defense. You see, in case I lose my chair I wish to be prepared for any offer you foreigners may make."—Philadelphia Post.

Strauss Played the Chant.

The teacher who influenced Strauss most was one Joseph Dresler, the choirmaster of St. Steven's church in Vienna, who tried to get the waltzes out of the boy's head and put in their place anthems and chorals. In this undertaking he met with indifferent success, for the worshippers in one of the Vienna churches were startled on a Sunday morning when there poured forth from the organ, filling the gloomy building by its enchanting notes, a waltz instead of the solemn Gregorian chant to which they were accustomed. It was Johann Strauss, Jr., who had taken the organist's place and substituted his own favorite selection for the usual sacred music, much to the dismay of the pious folk and the amusement of the younger people of the congregation.—Edward A. Steiner in the January, Woman's Home Companion.

The Danube Is Not Blue.

The assertion contained in the title of the famous Strauss waltz, "The Beautiful Blue Danube," is not borne out by the facts in the matter. A scientist who has taken observations as to the color of the Danube during every day for the past year, has found that on eleven days the water was brown, on forty-six days it was yellow, on fifty-nine it was muddy green, on forty-five clear green, on sixty-nine steely green, on sixty-four yellowish green—but blue, never. The history, poetry and prose of the day do not always jibe with the truth.

Pope Leo's Daily Fare.

It seems that his holiness Leo XIII. in the matter of eating and drinking is most frugal. A correspondent at the vatican states that the pope's breakfast consists of a cup of goat's milk with a dash of coffee in it. At his dinner he consumes a basin of broth and one plate of roast or boiled meat, followed by an orange—the latter at all seasons of the year. For supper he takes a basin of broth and a boiled egg.

A Detailed Map of Rock County

Work is now in progress on a new wall map for Rock County. In size it will be 42x47 inches, mounted on cloth, and each township (of which there are twenty) will be neatly colored. The county will be represented on the scale of 1½ inches to the mile and will show the location of streams, lakes, cities, villages, school houses, churches, town houses and residences, public roads and railroads. It will also locate the farms, giving the number of acres and the name of the present owners wherever it is possible to do so. As fast as the drawings of the townships are completed they are verified so that the map will be as nearly correct as possible. The work will be of great value to business and professional men and farmers, and should find place in every school house in the county. The last wall map of the county was made a great many years ago, so that this new one will fill a long felt want.

The Price is $6.00.

Only enough of the Maps will be printed to fill orders. This fact should be borne in mind by those interested. Agents will begin the work of canvassing at once; orders may be given them and may also be sent to us in care of The Gazette office. If you will send in your name a representative will call and give more information if necessary.
